

Would you like to share an interesting project, application, or other use of geospatial technology?

This is your opportunity to deliver a brief ~6 minute presentation on your latest geospatial endeavors and learn from other professionals in the NJGF Community.

Potential topics may range from mobile applications, data modeling, LiDAR analysis, programming, projects utilizing GIS data, or any geospatial hobby or idea you would like to share.

*Please contact Trish Long, trish.long@usda.gov, with your idea by
