

The New Jersey Office of GIS is aware that some users cannot download data from some of our websites. The NJGIN website issues are being caused by a problem affecting the state network. The state is working to diagnose and fix the problem but no timeframe has been given. This problem is also affecting other state agencies particularly the NJDEP Bureau of GIS website.