

Local Census Bureau training offered for updating residential addresses

The Census is gearing up for 2020! To improve and update their residential master address file, the Census Bureau is seeking help from county and municipal sources through the Local Update of Census Addresses Program (LUCA).

The Delaware Valley Regional Planning Commission (DVRPC) is pleased to announce that they've partnered with the Census Bureau's regional office to host a LUCA Training Workshop on Tuesday, November 21st from 1:00 - 5:00 pm at the DVRPC Main Conference Room.
