

URISA Offering Introductory 2011 Membership to Local Chapter Members for $20

This offer is available to all URISA Chapter members who are not current dues paying members of URISA International and have not been members in the past 2 years. The local chapter in New Jersey is the Mid Atlantic Chapter (MAC URISA). For information about becoming a MAC URISA member, visit www.macurisa.org and follow the link to Member Application.

This offer is available now for $20 (regular dues rate $175) and provides membership benefits through December 31, 2011. (The earlier you join, the more time you will have to take advantage of membership benefits.) All benefits accorded regular URISA members will be accorded to new members for the period of their introductory membership.

For a detailed list of member benefits and an application form, visit http://www.urisa.org/intro_membership and join today!
